

New Powder Coat Finishes

Parasoleil unveils eight new super durable powder coat finishes to add to their collection. Innovative and thoroughly tested for excellence, these new finishes offer even more ways to create beautiful, captivating spaces.

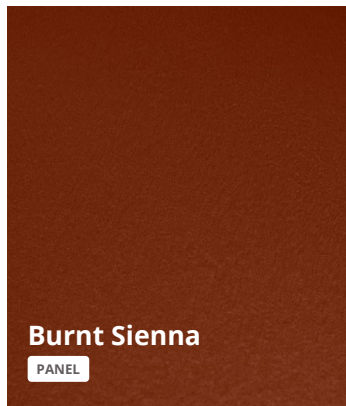

We are excited to expand our color palette to fit an array of environments. These new quality finishes are designed to build a neutral range of lighter shades, along with an added pop of color in darker hues and shades.

Desert Bones

PANEL

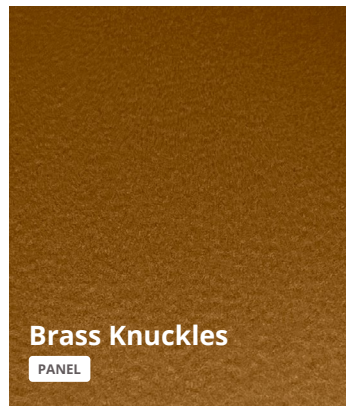

A neutral, low gloss off white; such as sun bleached, coarse bones found on the hot desert floor.

Burnt Sienna

PANEL

A deep orange-red-brown; visualize a fire pit simmering with an ember's glow.

Brass Knuckles

PANEL

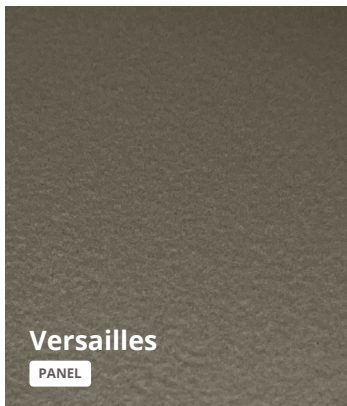

A smooth, sleek golden tone; imagine a symbol of protection, strength, and resilience.

Prosecco

PANEL

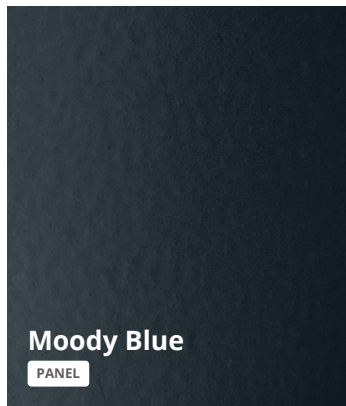

A metallic smooth, glossy fawn; envision a glass of fine bubbly that offers a light refreshing taste.

Versailles

PANEL

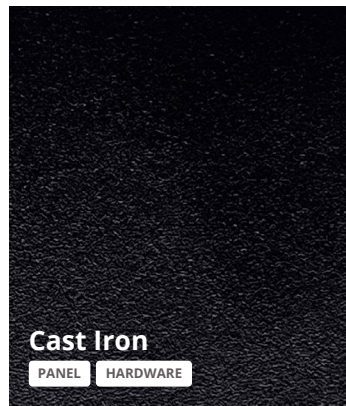

A smooth, matte blonde; think of a deep, rich royalty of soft gold jewels discovered in treasure.

Moody Blue

PANEL

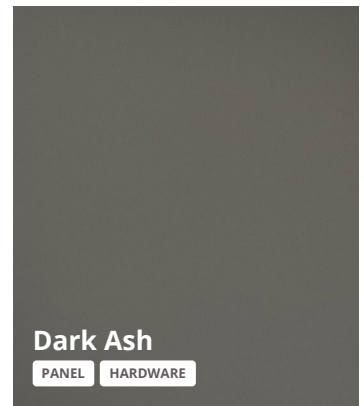

A satin, smooth gray blue, similar to a midnight sky filled with storm clouds on the verge of downpour.

Cast Iron

PANEL HARDWARE

A classic flat black, alluded to by a timeless favorite found in a well-used skillet in a vintage oven.

Dark Ash

PANEL HARDWARE

A velvety, sleek slate gray; picture a contemporary titanium ring designed as the perfect memento.
